

Jen's "Choose Your Own Adventure" Camino Packing List

Before you start packing

Consider these five questions:

1. How much time do you have before you leave for your pilgrimage?
2. What is your budget for gear or equipment?
3. What is your intention in walking this pilgrimage?
4. How many pounds can you comfortably carry for 6-8 hours a day?
5. How do you want to feel when you arrive in Santiago?

Instructions

- Print off this list.
- Go through all the options below, checking off the items you want to bring.
- Gather all your gear.
- Revise and remove until your pack is a comfortable weight for you. (See instructions.)
- Take test hikes with your pack fully loaded.

Tech options

- URLs and passwords for essential sites like skype, email, dropbox, wordpress, online banking, etc.
- US to European electrical converter for charging (Note: some chargers are universal—check your device documentation to be sure)
- Choose one of these:
  - phone and charger
  - camera, storage cards, and charger
  - tablet and charger
  - euro coins for albergue computers/internet

Not recommended

- tent or camping hammock
- any sleeping gear over 2 lbs
- pillow—most albergues have them
- stove, pots, or cooking gear
- water purification, filter, or treatment
- pets
- heavy musical instruments
- books
- games
- shrinkable wool garments
- anything cotton including denim, towels, or canvas (exception: in summer, one very lightweight, white, long-sleeve shirt)
- heels
- valuables, jewelry, or any treasured or irreplaceable items
- extra anything (batteries, shoes, moisturizer, etc.)
- backup anything

- excessive first aid supplies (prophylactic antibiotics, forceps, tourniquet, metal container, etc.)
- everyday beauty products
- hairdryer, flat iron, or styling products
- clothes steamer or iron
- really good/heavy camera equipment (like zoom lenses)
- heavy/battery-driven technology like laptops, SPOT device, etc.
- full-size (over 3oz) bottles of any liquid
- thermal or silk underwear—you won't need it unless your bod runs reeealy cold
- large flashlight or headlamp—too heavy and not necessary
- swim suit—use shorts/underwear and bra instead
- gaiters (for feet)
- combination locks or anything metal
- bug spray
- fireworks, illegal drugs, firearms, or anything that might cause international intrigue
- anything that has only one function or won't be used daily
- anything you can buy there (especially if it's cheaper—and it often is)
- anything you'd be really sad to lose

Pack weight:

- Hold out one outfit (the one you'll be wearing). Fill your pack with all the items you plan to bring including a filled water bottle.
- Put on the pack and weigh yourself. Then remove it and weigh yourself. Subtract.
- Remove non-essential items until your pack is under 20 pounds or 10 percent of your ideal body weight—whichever is less.

Goals:

- To carry at least one thing that feels like “home” to you.
- To leave behind any object that has any negative energy or emotion associated with it.
- To leave at home what is not essential, not double-duty, or anything that's “just in case.”
- To trust that unexpected needs can be met in Spain—from boots to ibuprofeno.
- To carry only what you need to support the experience you want to have on your pilgrimage—nothing more or less.

Ultreia, peregrino/a!

If you find this list helpful, I'd love to hear from you. Buen camino!

Warmly,
Jen
